General Information

Savour the Flavour of the Swan Valley, Western Australia

The Swan Valley in Western Australia, only 20 minutes from the centre of Perth, is Western Australia's oldest wine growing region. The Swan Valley is where you will experience a colourful blend of history, people, art, world-class wine, gourmet goodies and fresh produce. The Swan Valley is the ideal location to escape, indulge and awaken your senses!

Award-Winning Wineries in the Swan Valley

A bustling tourist area, the Swan Valley in Western Australia has a number of award-winning wineries, many of which are family owned and run. These Western Australian wineries offer superb alfresco and restaurant meals as well as cellar door tastings. A trip to the Swan Valley makes the ideal day trip. Swan Valley wineries are open for tasting all year round.

Fine Art & Accommodation in the Swan Valley

The Swan Valley in Western Australia is home to a number of artist studios, galleries and a selection of fine accommodation. The art galleries in the Swan Valley include Western Australia's largest private gallery. Accommodation ranges from self-contained chalets and character B & Bs, to five-star resorts, caravan parks and boutique guesthouses.

Swan Valley Activities

Activities to be enjoyed in the Swan Valley include riverside horseback rides, train and tram rides at Whiteman Park, a round of golf at the Vines world-class golf course or playing with the koalas at the Swan Valley wildlife park.
